

Can you do some research about the animals of the polar regions?

Year Two Homework

Polar Regions - Autumn 1B

Imagine you were going camping in the Antarctic. What would you need to take with you to stay safe and warm?

Can you retell the story of the Nativity to someone in your family using pictures that you have drawn?

Imagine that you are a shepherd from the nativity story and answer these questions:

How did you feel when the angels appeared ?

Why was everybody so delighted when Jesus was born?

How many words about winter, Christmas or the polar regions can you record?

Super Number Skills - how many number facts can you record using the three times table?

Can you be a polar regions activist and find out what climate change is? Can you design a poster all about climate change?

Can you design a suit that would keep you warm if you lived in a very cold place?