

Weekly Newsletter

St Margaret's Anfield

Church of England Primary School

With God, all things are possible.

Message from Mrs Hughes...

Hello to you all, I hope you are safe and well. I am excited to share this first weekly newsletter with you and hope that you enjoy reading it.

I must thank all of our parents and carers for their patience regarding the FSM vouchers, the national scheme seems to be finally be up and running and I hope you are now receiving your voucher via email. Please do ensure that we have your up to date email address.

I have really enjoyed looking at the work, pictures and activities on our Seesaw blog that our pupils have been completing at home. I hope that they are all now accessing their Home Learning tasks which can be found on their class page on the website, plus you can upload their work and images/photos to the Seesaw blog and they can send messages to their class mates and teachers too! <https://app.seesaw.me/#/login>

If you have samples of work or photos of tasks and activities that you are happy for us to include on future weekly newsletters, please email them to admin@st-margaretsanfield.liverpool.sch.uk state that you give permission for these images to be used in our newsletters. I can't wait to see more of our pupils' work over the coming days!

Please all continue to stay safe and look after one another,

Mrs Lesley Hughes

Activities to try this week

Make your own puppet show!

Help make a teddy bear picnic, help make the sandwiches, cakes, snacks and drinks. Design your own invitation card for family, or have afternoon tea.

Learn a poem by heart. There is a wonderful website that has poems by children's age:-

Joke of the Week

Q: Why did the jelly baby go to school?

A: Because they wanted to be a smartie!

Thought for the day from David Thorpe our Senior Diocesan Schools' Adviser...

One Christian value that many of our schools have adopted is TRUST.

Psalm 18:2 says "My God is my strength in whom I trust". Three verses from the Bible come to mind ... take one of them as your verse today and throughout the weekend: Three verses from the Bible come to mind ... take one of them as your verse today and throughout the weekend:

"Do not fear, for I am your GOD. I will strengthen you and help you ... " (Isaiah 41:10)

"Blessed is the one who trusts in the LORD ... they will be like a tree planted by water that sends out its roots by the stream ... it has no worries in a year of drought ... "

(Jeremiah 17:7-8)

"Cast all your anxiety on Him, because He cares for you."

(1 Peter 5:7)

Almighty God, be to me a solid rock to stand on, a strong tower to shelter in, and a firm anchor to hold me safe in the storms of life. Amen
